MEET

GROW

So much more than just an office.

A COLLABORATIVE ENVIRONMENT

The building is thoughtfully designed to enable you to be productive, collaborative and creative. Work at your desk or roam through the buildings many social spaces – sometimes a fresh perspective is all you need to solve that annoying problem you've been stuck on all morning.

By being at The Bradfield Centre, you also benefit from being on The Cambridge Science Park, home to 130 companies, employing more than 7,000 people.

A PLACE TO GROW

Unlike most run of the mill workspaces, we actively help you grow your business. We have partnered with leading international, national and local organisations to give our members an unfair advantage. You will have access to exclusive start-up programs from the likes of AWS, Google and Microsoft, you are a few steps away from enjoying hundreds of free tech & entrepreneurship related events that we host every year, and we use our networks to connect you to Angel investors, VC's, and many more.

The Science Park is the ideal place to grow onto once you have outgrown us at The Bradfield Centre.

ACCESS WORLD CLASS TALENT

The University of Cambridge is world renowned for producing top talent. There are a number of ways The Bradfield Centre can help you connect into The University. These include The Trinity Bradfield Prize which is our annual competition to spotlight and support Tech talent across the University. There is an internship program running with Trinity College and we run a number of events throughout the year with student organisations and the Judge Business School.

Focus on running your company, not your office

One of the clear benefits of joining The Bradfield Centre is you don't have to spend a second thinking about managing your office space, allowing you to focus on what's important – growing your business.

We take care of everything, and offer an all-inclusive price to our Resident and Private Office members meaning there are no hidden surprises, and you know exactly what to expect every month.

Thanks to our transparent pricing structure, your budgeting will always be straightforward. With a fixed monthly licence fee, and only one invoice per month, you can take control of your company's regular outgoings.

Membership starts from just £45 per month, and all our packages are designed to be flexible catering for any situation: from homeworking, hybrid home & office working all the way through to 365 days, 24/7 access to your own personalised office space.
